

I support the New Jersey "Do Not Call" list in it's current form.
I want the option to choose who to do business with, not the business. Let the businesses who feel they need the exemption drop a note in the mail if they want to maintain a relationship